Hope Home News

Greetings from the Pastor:

Follow us on Facebook!

HopeCherryville

Summer is on the way, and I love this season of the year. Already I am thinking of all the things I want to do as the weather offers us more daylight hours and opportunities for outside activities. I think about what I'd like to do in my free time and what gives me joy. I think about vacations, visiting our son in Washington DC, spending time with our grandchildren, boating and drifting on the Delaware River. And then I think...where am I going to find time to do all the things I'm thinking about??!! How can I possibly fit all this into my already over-crowded schedule? It's all about managing our time.

Read the following statements and check the ones that are true in your life.

- I often feel confused and scattered.
- I have too much to do and too little time in which to do it.
- I think of myself as contented.
- I enjoy my family.
- I have a daily quiet time.
- I sometimes take a nap.
- I enjoy regular exercise.
- I spend most of my time on urgent things instead of the important things.
- I often feel guilty for taking time to relax.
- I have prayerfully set life goals.

Here's a hard truth for many of us - time management is a dreaded and often ignored spiritual discipline. On any given day we choose where to invest our time - carefully planning everything from work-related meetings and lunch appointments to play dates and trips to the grocery store - but fail to schedule the most important activity of all - spending time with God.

I am convinced that much of our frustration in life comes from doing things we were never intended to do. Temptation happily dances across our overcrowded schedules. Here is the reality - our minutes, hours and days are precious commodities, gifts from God that can be unwrapped only once. Often, we become so busy meeting the needs of others that we destroy ourselves in the process. Being intentional about our time and our lives can help. I am, by no means, an expert in time management - but I do want to share some simple ideas to which I have been exposed.

- Prepare - Just as we budget our money, we must budget our time. Every day, we are presented with twenty-four hours, and every day we must choose to either spend those hours or invest them.
- Prioritize - If we don't set priorities - others will. Time thieves will steal the hours and days as we allow them to impose their plans and demands on us.
- Eliminate - Learn to leave the "lesser" things undone. (This lesson is especially hard for me because I actually believe I can do it all. My trusty "Superwoman" cape is never far away!)
- Delegate - Remind everyone around you that they are an important part of this team - then use them to help.
- Simplify - Give up on perfection - it won't happen all the time anyway. Learn to say "this is sufficient."
- Spend time with God - Whenever you can. Wherever you can. However you can. Spending time with God keeps us centered, focused, intentional about the way we are spending the precious gift of time God offers.

Good time management skills for many of us do not come naturally or easily. And while we will falter in our attempts to manage our time well - we can always begin again. Join me today in a new commitment to cultivate, apply and relish the time we have.

*God's blessings,
Pastor Jami*

How to Pray for America

God is sovereign and nothing comes as a surprise to Him. Whether we face fluctuating economics, threats from abroad, unrest at home, or other troubling circumstances, our Heavenly Father is not caught unaware. Through prayer, we are able to tap into His wisdom, strength, protection, and peace. He stands ready to respond to our needs when we humbly ask for divine intervention in the affairs of men.

As we Pray for America whose pledge of allegiance recounts that we are "one nation under God," and whose currency states that it is "in God we trust," we want Americans to encounter the God who rules over their country. "He who forms the mountains, creates the wind, and reveals His thoughts to man, He who turns down to darkness, and treads the high places of the earth—the LORD God Almighty is His name." —Amos 4:13 NIV

He is the One who gave us this promise in 2 Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, who are called by My name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land." As we humbly and diligently seek Him, we'll be changed, and we'll see transformation in America through prayer!

Youth Gathering 2024:

Every 3 years the ELCA hosts a Youth Gathering for our high school students. This Over the years Hope Lutheran has been lucky enough to send around 20 youth to each Gathering. Our youth members and adult leaders work hard to raise funds so our students can attend at a minimum cost to each family. Our group typically budgets around $1,500 per person to go on this trip. It is through the generous support of you, our church family, that we have been able to send so many young people to this life-changing event. Our youth are the future of our church and we appreciate your commitment and generosity towards helping to grow our youth programs. We hope and pray that our loving congregation will continue to show their support for our young people in our future endeavors.
