HOPE HOME NEWS

A Message from the Interim Pastor:

It is that time. I have been with you since December, 2023 as your interim pastor. I arrived newly retired and said as a joke, "I will be here for a few months!" And we both chuckled but knew eventually God would smile on Hope Lutheran and bring another, more permanent pastor. It is that time.

It has been truly an honor to serve God with you at Hope. Worship has been inspirational and always changing. Your enthusiasm for everything with the church is admirable! Sometimes I would arrive for worship and wonder 'who will light the candles?' 'Who will be in the AV closet?' And someone steps up. Of course, some of you have been more involved than others and I say, now is the time for those without commitments to the church, to ask "How can I help?" The council members have worked very hard to allow me to serve part time and to keep Hope Lutheran mostly looking the same as the call committee searched for a new pastor. Thank you to council and the call committee. It is time for more people to ask, "What can I do?"

I will take many fine memories with me as I depart on July 15. Thank you to Kim Roth who made sure to greet me when I first arrived and checked in often when she was president of council. I pray others in the congregation will do the same for your new pastor, Jessica Kingsborough. Make sure to bring your joy moments to the new pastor and keep her in your prayers! I will also keep all of you in prayer.

If I tried to name all the people these last 19 months who brought me joy, or who shared our faith stories, or we comforted one another, or taught each other or in some way helped to make Hope Lutheran handle change, the list would be long! When done, I'd say, 'Wait, forgot this one!' You know who you are! Thank you for coffee, stories, allowing me in your lives at funerals, sharing laughter at a wedding, being blessed with the smile of a newborn baptized, letting your child pray 'Amen, Amen, Amen'. Thank you for blessing all of us with your voices in the choir, helping to lead worship, light candles, carry the cross and thought hard about decisions that had to be made. Thank you and it is time to continue.

Especially thank you to all the staff. I believe Jennifer Somers, the office manager, is clairvoyant, and knew what I needed before I verbalized it. (Maybe it is all the gnomes she smiles at?). She works exceeding hard every day, noticed by some and goes unnoticed more often but she is glue for the church office. When is Administrative professional day? (April) David Ziegler is such a gift to Hope with his musical prowess and love of good worship. He is confident in all things but is willing to listen to your ideas. Thank you to both of these exceptional people.

Most of all, thank you to all of you who worship our Lord and allowed the Holy Spirit to blow me into your presence. I go with peace.

In His Name,
Pastor Sue

THEN YOU WILL GO
ON YOUR WAY
IN SAFETY, AND YOUR FOOT WILL NOT STUMBLE.

INDIANLAND GARDEN CLUB MEETING

Tuesday,

July 15

6 PM

As we approach the Fourth of July, our hearts naturally turn to thoughts of freedom, patriotism, and the many blessings we enjoy as citizens of the United States. Fireworks, family gatherings, and waving flags are all part of the celebration—but as Lutherans, we are also called to view this holiday through the lens of our faith.

Martin Luther once wrote that "a Christian is a perfectly free lord of all, subject to none; a Christian is a perfectly dutiful servant of all, subject to all." These words encapsulate a uniquely Lutheran understanding of freedom: we are liberated by the Gospel not for our own sake, but so that we may serve others in love.

On Independence Day, we rightly give thanks for the political and civic freedoms we enjoy—freedom of speech, freedom of worship, and the rule of law. These are great blessings, gifts from God through the governing authorities He has established (Romans 13:1). Yet, our true and ultimate freedom comes not from any government or earthly power, but from Christ alone. "If the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed" (John 8:36).

This freedom in Christ means we are no longer bound by sin, guilt, or the demands of the Law for our salvation. It frees us to live joyfully, courageously, and compassionately in our communities. While we honor and support our nation, our first allegiance is to God's kingdom—a kingdom that transcends all borders and politics.

As you celebrate this Independence Day, take a moment to reflect not just on our national heritage, but on your spiritual freedom in Christ. Pray for our leaders. Seek justice. Serve your neighbor. And give thanks for the freedom that comes from the cross, which no earthly power can grant or take away.

May your celebrations be filled with joy, gratitude, and a renewed commitment to live out your freedom in Christ.

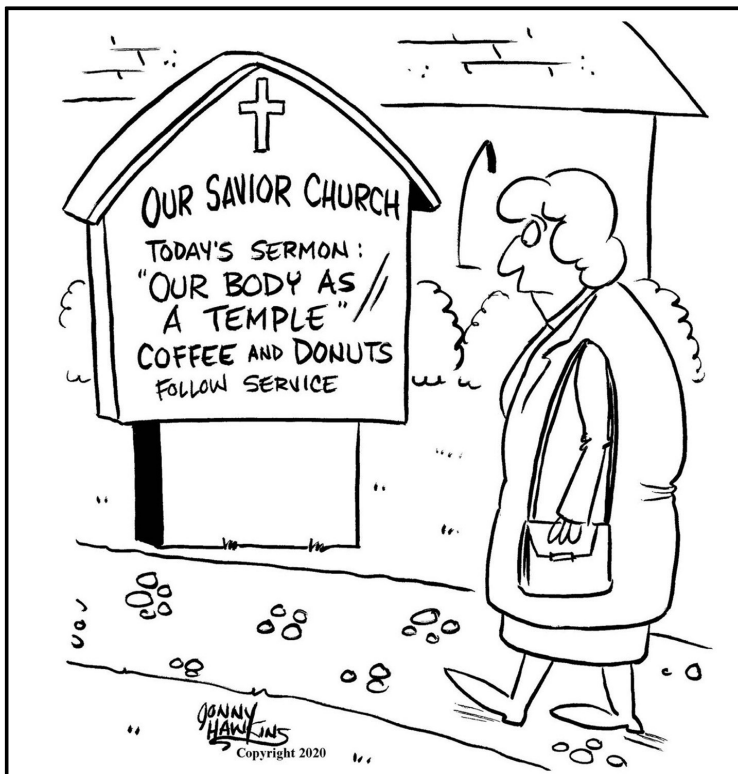

Dear Family at Hope Church,

April 30, 2025 was a beautiful day in the life of Hope Church as together we celebrated the life of my mother, Kathryn Pauline Strohl. Thank you to the many devoted friends and family for all the prayers, cards, calls, visits and love you've shown to my mom throughout the years and especially the past year and a half as she struggled trying to recover from a nasty fall. Your kindness is so appreciated and will never be forgotten. God bless you, and God bless Hope Church! Mom loved you and she loved her church.

With love,

Linda, Tom & Jill (Powers) Sidor & Family

CARPET REMODEL PROJECT

Hope Lutheran Church Council is thrilled to announce that exciting improvements are on the horizon for our beloved church! As part of our ongoing commitment to creating a welcoming and comfortable environment for all members and visitors, we will be installing new carpeting in the Narthex, Communications/Confirmation Office, and Main Office. These updates are not just about aesthetics; they are about fostering a space where everyone feels at home, supported, and engaged in our community.

Once Pastor Jessica joins us in August, we look forward to collaborating with her to discuss and plan the next steps for redoing the carpets in the Pastor's Office and the Sunday School Office. This is a wonderful opportunity to enhance our spaces further and ensure they reflect the warmth and love that defines Hope Lutheran Church.

A heartfelt thank you goes out to Charlie Kutzler and the Property Committee for their dedication and hard work in taking on this significant project. Your efforts truly embody the spirit of community that we cherish so deeply.

These enhancements align beautifully with our mission to cultivate a family-like atmosphere that supports spiritual growth and engagement among all members. We believe that a comfortable environment plays a crucial role in nurturing our relationships and deepening our faith.

We invite all members to participate in future discussions about further improvements. Your insights and ideas are invaluable as we continue to develop our church together. Let's work hand-in-hand to shape a space that reflects our shared values and aspirations.

Daughters of Shandong

A propulsive, extraordinary novel about a mother and her daughters' harrowing escape to Taiwan as the Communist revolution sweeps through China, by debut author Eve J. Chung, based on her family's story Daughters are the Ang family's curse.

In 1948, civil war ravages the Chinese countryside, but in rural Shandong, the wealthy, landowning Angs are more concerned with their lack of an heir. Hai is the eldest of four girls and spends her days looking after her sisters. Headstrong Di, who is just a year younger, learns to hide in plain sight, and their mother—abused by the family for failing to birth a boy—finds her own small acts of rebellion in the kitchen. As the Communist army closes in on their town, the rest of the prosperous household flees, leaving behind the girls and their mother because they view them as useless mouths to feed.

Without an Ang male to punish, the land-seizing cadres choose Hai, as the eldest child, to stand trial for her family's crimes. She barely survives their brutality. Realizing the worst is yet to come, the women plan their escape. Starving and penniless but resourceful, they forge travel permits and embark on a thousand-mile journey to confront the family that abandoned them.

From the countryside to the bustling city of Qingdao, and onward to British Hong Kong and eventually Taiwan, they witness the changing tide of a nation and the plight of multitudes caught in the wake of revolution. But with the loss of their home and the life they've known also comes new freedom—to take hold of their fate, to shake free of the bonds of their gender, and to claim their own story.

Told in assured, evocative prose, with impeccably drawn characters, Daughters of Shandong is a hopeful, powerful story about the resilience of women in war; the enduring love between mothers, daughters, and sisters; and the sacrifices made to lift up future generations.

Create a simple and meaningful prayer box your family can use to share requests and pray together all week long.

What you need:

- Shoebox with lid
- Wrapping paper or decorative paper
- Scissors & tape
- Markers or crayons
- Stickers and other craft material (optional)
- Pens or pencils
- Index cards or small pieces of paper

What you do:

1. Wrap the shoebox like a gift, wrapping the lid separately so it can be opened.
2. As a family, decorate the box with drawings, favorite Bible verses, photos, or stickers.
3. Place the box somewhere central, like the kitchen or living room.
4. Keep index cards and pens nearby. When someone has a prayer request, they can write or draw it and drop it in.
5. Throughout the week, take turns praying over the requests as a family, or have a parent lead prayer time.

Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful.
